2010 Shark City National Martial Arts Tournament

When: Saturday June 12th

Where: San Jose Convention Center 435 Market Street

The 2010 Shark City Nationals Marital Arts tournament is fast approaching! 2010 is the third year that Black Tiger students will have competed. We are forming our competition team now! Interested intermediate Gung Fu students need to register for this event no later than May 15th. Lori will take care of the registration, but if you are interested, please let Lori know no later than Friday May 7th. Competition fees are $45 for the first event and $20 for each additional event. This year we plan to enter competitions for individual forms and weapons forms. There are special first time competitors divisions and the tournament is open to all styles of martial arts. Student spectators and families are welcome. Spectator cost is $10 in advance/$20 at door. Carpools will be available, as well as small, need-based financial help.

Black Tiger Academy's website is now new and improved! Check out www.blacktigeracademy.com for current and archived photos, class schedules, testing information, monthly happenings and more.

PLUS each month we will host a "Website Treasure Hunt". This month, enter to win a new "clapper" kicking target by participating in the Treasure Hunt.

How???

1. Log onto the website.
2. Find the answer to: "When did Master Sal pass away"?
3. Put your name and answer in the box which is located on the drink cooler.
4. At the end of the month we will draw a winner!

Wanted:

An updated email list so that you can receive a message to check out the monthly photos which will now be posted on the Black Tiger Academy website. Photos can also be ordered from the site. Please sign up today.

Kickboxing students please note: the monthly raffle has changed. Please participate in the new "Website Treasure Hunt" raffle each month.
